COMMERCIAL CLUB Rapidly Forging to the Front and Rapid Strides are Being Made Along Lines of Progress.

The Commercial Club met last Monday night at the office of T. D. Tinsley and proceeded to take up and dispose of the routine work.

The new factory plants were discussed and the most available plans to make them a success were made a matter of discussion.

Several thousand folders setting forth some of the attractive features were ordered to be distributed among the business firms of our town to be mailed out in connection with their regular correspondence.

There seemed to be deep interest manifested by all present for the future of our town, and the consensus of opinion prevailed that our club would prove a great auxiliary in building up and maintaining public enterprises.

The committee reported that the constitution and by-laws of the club would be completed and ready to report on next Monday night. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance at that meeting, as the organization will then be completed and the various committees will be appointed, who will materially strengthen the organization.

There being nothing further before the club President Matthews declared the meeting adjourned to meet again Monday night.

COMPANY "B"

Home From World's Fair and All Report a Delightful Trip.

Company "B" returned home Tuesday afternoon from St. Louis where the boys have been for the past ten days. Every member of the company reports having had a fine and instructive trip and are well pleased with the treatment received while there with the exception of their pe which was but a nominal at the encampment was held at the usual plan, and the boys ample time for sight-seeing. There was no disorder what while in camp or while going or from the Fair.

Drills were gone through during the morning, and a mess, at 11 o'clock, the boys brown made off from camp, the many places of interest the grounds, and after everybody penetrated the tentious "Fike," and us reached camp many hours a taps had sounded.

Company "B" was given to be the best drilled company of the Second Kentucky by officers of the regiment, and successful in having an or every day while there.

The company was called put a gang of Western D. of the line of parade in doing so, with only eight After this little episode the company was called the "serp" by foreigners and other though the boys were break camp, still they we to reach home.

AWAKENING Interest in the Future of Our Town is Beginning to be Aroused.

The different suggestions that have been made from time to time through the Advocate have touched a few places that show some life, and some of our citizens are awakening to the importance of "up and doing" while the opportunity is ours.

Our water-works suggestion has begun to take form of life and men of means and judgment are now beginning to promote it, and it now looks as if we might have a real first-class up-to-date water-works plant here in the near future.

Our laundry proposition has also suggested itself to a number and already some have begun to talk about establishing an enterprise of that kind here.

Our broom works, that have been in operation part of the time for the past two years in the county, now want to locate in town and increase their capacity and their capital and operate all their machines the year round.

This is a move in the right direction.

There is room for all, and still more. Another citizen told us a few days ago that he was about to begin to put in a planing and shingle mill here. That seems to us would also pay.

Now let's have a hub and spoke factory, and in a very short time we will have a new railroad passing through our town from Jellico, Tenn., to Beattyville, Ky., which would open up an avenue for commerce and reduce freight rates and give outlet for millions tons of coal and thousands of acres of timber.

Let's build up our town and thus cause an attraction this way, and whenever a stranger comes here treat him in such a way that he will want to come back.

One of the best ways to accomplish this is to Code Thoughts as they Fall from the Editorial Pen. Pleasant Evening Reverses.

The things that go the farthest toward making life worth while, That roots the least and does the most, is just a pleasant smile. The smile that bubbles from the heart that loves its fellow men Will drive away the clouds of gloom and coax the sun again. It's full of worth and goodness, too, with manly kindness blent— It's worth a million dollars and it doesn't cost a cent.

LATE hours are shadows from the grave.

THE present time is the raw material out of which we make whatever we will. Do not brood over the past, or dream of the future, but seize the instant and get your lesson from the hour. The man is yet unborn who rightly measures and fully realizes the value of an hour. As Fenelon says, God never gives but one moment at a time, and does not give a second until he withdraws the first.

"Is your father rich?" someone asked a five-year-old girl, and the little one replied confidently, "Why, of course! He's got me." And she was right, too, for the father of a sweet, loving, helpful little daughter is richer than some millionaires whose money cannot buy them the love of a single heart. How about your father? Does he feel that he is a rich man because of the daughter at home? There are households where it is hard "to make both ends meet," but where there is plenty of that better wealth of love and goodness and loyalty. Is yours one of them?

WE sometimes hear a clergyman consoling a mother, distracted over the death of her darling child, by telling her that a mysterious Providence has taken it from her for wise reasons, and that she must find comfort in her bereavement. What! has God snatched from loving parents a beautiful child just blooming into youth? Does the Creator of harmony produce discord? Does the Author of health and beauty smite his noblest work ere it is finished—a work into which He has breathed his own image, and which He has endowed with aspirations and possibilities as high as heaven itself? It is a libel upon Him who has fashioned the human body, so wonderfully and fearfully wrought, that it may withstand ravages of time for a century. God does not murder nor torture his children. He rather tries a thousand ways to induce them to keep the laws of health, which, if obeyed, would carry them into a old age. He tries in every way to prolong life after we have forfeited every right to it, and have become useless drones.

the same family and under the same circumstances one rears a stately edifice, while his brother, vacillating and incompetent, lives forlorn amid the ruins. From the same materials one may fashion vessels of honor or dishonor. We find what we are looking for. The geologist design and order in the pavestones. The botanist reads volubility in the flowers and grasses. The most men tread under their

LABOR, the mighty magician, forth into a region uninhabited waste; he looks earnestly scene, so quiet in its desolation, wearing his weary wand, those dreary valleys with golden harvests; those mountain-slopes are clothed with green; the furnace blazes; the busy wheel whirls the town appears; the mart of commerce, the hall of science, temple, rear high their lofty spires; a forest of masts, gay with pennons, rise from the harbor; natives of far-off regions their resort; science elicits secrets of earth and heaven in science; art, awakening, clothes its strength with beauty; civilization smiles; liberty is glad; humanity rejoices, for the voice of industry and gladness is heard on every side. Working men walk worthy of your vocation. You have a noble escheon; disgrace it not. Labor, allied with virtue, may look up to heaven and not blush. The man and woman who are above labor, and despite the laborer, show a want of common sense. Labor achieves more grander victories, it weaves more durable trophies, it holds sway than the conqueror. His name becomes tainted and his monuments crumble, but labor converts his red battle fields into gardens, and erects monuments significant of better things. The noblest thing in the world is honest labor.

THE HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as they Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

It is often asked why the boys and girls do not attend school longer. Many—by far far too many—of them drop out at ten or twelve, and it is seldom that the boys attend after their fourteenth or fifteenth year. This should not be so, and it would not be the case if parents used the proper encouragement. Because a boy gets restless in the schoolroom his parents need not conclude that it is a waste of time to send him. He will do well if encouraged and kept at it. It is poor economy to put the boy at work when he ought to be in school, unless it is a necessity. Give him the best education he can get, and fit him to do something in the world. Because you succeeded with little education is no reason that your son should be deprived of all he can get. Conditions have all changed in the last thirty years. It requires more skill and training to rise in the world than it did when you were a boy. Your son will become a better mechanic, a better farmer, as well as a better business man by having a good education. Your daughter will be a better house keeper, a better wife and a better mother by having all the advantages that the public schools of our land afford. You can afford to stint your children on fine clothes, fine houses and fancy food much better than you can afford to starve their intellects and compel them to narrow, sordid lives because their natures are not developed. You can afford to bear extra burdens for a long while in order to fit them for the burdens of life. They will thank you for it in after years.

Just a few words to the boys and girls. If you have the opportunity do not waste it. Make your school days count to the best advantage. It means work, of course it does, but you need never to expect to get anything of value without an equivalent. Many of the common laborers of to-day who gain a miserable livelihood at the hardest kind of labor will tell you that they brought the trouble on themselves by idling away their golden hours of school days. The more the work the better. You need to exercise the body to keep it strong and in the best of health, and so you must exercise the brain if you would have a healthy growth. Do not go to school just to avoid heavy work, and make yourself a shirk or an idler; but go resolved to stand at the head of your class and earn the place by systematic, conscientious study. Your entire future depends on the foundation you lay in your youth. Appreciate the sacrifice your parents are making for your benefit and show them it is not in vain.

THE time is rapidly drawing near when we will be called to the polls to decide who shall be the nominees of the party in Knox county at the following county election.

There are quite a list of candidates enrolled on our list, and we are told that there are even some who have not as yet announced, who are seeking the nomination. Of course those who ignore the party organ will have no show to win their race, but we insist that the voters select by their choice for nominees the men who show their loyalty to the party by supporting the party official organ.

This will be a good test this year of who are the most deserving of our support from a political standpoint as the primary comes just four days after the National election, we will have an opportunity to see who does the best party work for the ticket, and those who stand back and shrink from their duty will be noted and supported accordingly.

Look out, candidates, you are being watched by the interested voters and a record of your conduct kept against you.

QUITE a number of our readers have complimented our last issue concerning the suggestion of a good roads movement, and it was generally conceded that the county roads could be greatly improved if the proper steps were taken to have them put in repair.

We are slow to believe that the citizens of Knox prefer traveling bad roads rather than work them and make them good, but the trouble is this: One man does not want to do all the work and another get all the benefits, and as the present plans adopted the overseers do not strictly enforce the law, but allow those who fail to come at the warning, to go by unpunished, and thus license every other man to ignore the warning to work the public roads.

We are informed that this is the case in all save one Magisterial district, and in that one district the roads are in better condition than any other part of the county.

We have been told that a stranger in passing through this county can tell exactly when they come to the Laurel or Bell county line by the condition of the county roads, that as soon as they cross the Knox county line they find a decided improvement in the condition of the roads.

Now that is a shame and a disgrace to the fair name of Knox county, and the Fiscal Court should take steps at once to have these conditions remedied, if it required the full limit of the road law executed in order to put the roads in proper condition.

It is reported to be rumored in New York that Ury Woodson contemplates resigning as Secretary of the National committee. This is plain proof that the New Yorkers do not know Ury. Resign? Well, he may die, or get lost, or be gold-bricked, but it is a safe bet that he will never resign.

THE nomination of S. J. Pugh, ex-Congressman from the Ninth district, means a hard fight. Pugh has twice been elected, and the last time he was defeated by Kehoe it was claimed that Beckham did it. Will he do it again?

VERMONT has pronounced emphatically on "the personality, the characteristics and performances of Theodore Roosevelt." The country will do so in November in the same sense and with equal emphasis, "Democratic" editors notwithstanding.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS is accused of being a fox candidate. He gets to Kansas, for instance, too late to harvest wheat and too early to pick corn. But he is always on time to kiss the babies and win votes.

JUDGE PARKER in his address to the editors pleaded for harmony. T. C. New Jersey Democrats, in reply, hand him out a lively and loquacious bolting organization.

THE more Tammany and Tillmanic orators are sent to Republican States the more effectively is Republican strength drawn out. Ask Vermont and Maine.

SOME walking delegate may collide with President Roosevelt. The latter's working day is from 7 a. m. to 11 p. m., without charge for overtime.

ALL is now over but the inaugural address of President Roosevelt.

Drop in a Parker ballot and get a free bowl of soup.

TOM TAGGART says he is satisfied with the Republican majority in Maine. So are we.

John S. Jarvis, Defendant.

By virtue of a judgment entered by the Knox Circuit Court at its July term, 1904, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on a credit of six months, at the door of the Court-house in Barbourville, Kentucky, on MONDAY, SEPT. 26, 1904.

Beginning between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., the following described property, or so much thereof as will satisfy the following sum:

Two hundred and fifty dollars, with interest from August 2, 1903, until paid.

One hundred and eighty-five dollars with interest from July 20, 1902, until paid.

Sixty-three dollars and forty cents with interest from March 28, 1, 1903 until paid; and the sum of $62.20 cost of this action.

The property to be sold is the following: One storehouse situated on the north side of the Public Square on a lot now owned by Alex Sevier, formerly owned by Tyree Gibson; said house being a one-story frame structure, being about twenty feet wide and about fifty feet long, owned by the defendant, John S. Jarvis.

The land directed to be sold is an undivided half interest in the tract of land lying on Little Richland creek in Knox county, Ky., and is bounded on the north by lands of Thomas Barnes, on the south by the lands of George Gray, and on the west by lands of Ellen Jones, containing about 120 acres, more or less.

The purchaser will give bond with good security, bearing interest from date and having the force and effect of a judgment, with a lien retained on the property until the money is fully paid.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

All correspondents who write for this paper are requested to report the news briefly and confine themselves to news. Puffs for merchants come under the head of paid locals, and should be inserted at the rate of 5 cents per line, otherwise we must pencil them.

Be careful not to write anything that will prove offensive to any one; a good joke is appreciated by all, but we want to make friends and not enemies of all with whom we come in contact.

Write on only one side of your paper and be sure to sign your own name to the manuscript—not for publication but for future reference and to show good faith—a failure to do this will hereafter necessarily consign your letters to the waste basket.

Please read these notes and bear them in mind, and write on one side of the paper only.

Hopper.

Quite a destructive storm visited this place last Sunday week.

Miss Maggie Rowland and cousin, Will Riley, visited relatives in Laurel county a few days ago.

B. E. Parker made a flying trip through here a few days ago on a canvassing tour. Mr. Parker says he will not be with the people of this place any more until he is elected Superintendent.

Girdler being the former home of Supt. Hignite, it seems natural for the citizens of this place to vote for him.

Joe Smith, of Barbourville, has been on Hammons' Fork the past week looking after his staves.

Mr. and Mrs. Mance Hammonds, of this place, paid Mrs. Hammonds' parents a very pleasant visit last Sunday week.

Your correspondent, with a number of citizens from this place, attended a good old-fashioned Baptist meeting Sunday, the 11th, at Old Friendship church on Bull creek; a large crowd being present to listen to a very interesting sermon, which was delivered by Rev. Corie.

The roads at this place are in bad shape. The people here are going to vote for that man who is in favor of better roads—Flem D. Sampson.

Knox Fork.

John Daniels, who has been working in Corbin, returned home last Friday.

The Knox Fork Debating Society met Thursday night and organized. We expect to have a nice time. Everybody invited.

G. C. Hammett, of Hammond, was visiting friends here Sunday.

J. J. Price went to Gray's Sunday. I'm sure his scholars will have an easier time this week. He hasn't returned yet. If he don't come tonight some one will have to go tell him to-morrow will be Monday.

Ben started for Gray's he brought his pony and hitched her up then he went into the house to put on his high collar, of course. While he was standing before the looking glass brushing his hair, and all of a sudden his pony broke loose and went up in the Irish potato patch and lost the bridle, and the poor fellow had to hunt it. He went all over the patch searching for it, and it happened to go round he found it about one hundred yards up the branch. When he looked at it he said "she won't have to wait long now to see me." So poor Pete started off looking very pale, and that is the last we have seen of him and the pony. ROSE and VIOLET.

Ola, Ky.

Mr. Editor, will you please tell Sunshine not to shine too hot on a frosty morning, to prevent the "White Rose" to bloom from being scorched.

Miss Ida Adams and Maggie Webb have gone to Wilmore to attend college the ensuing year.

Burdine Webb and Charley Hogg, of Mayking, have gone to St. Louis to take in the fair.

The funeral of Mayo Adams was held here Saturday and Sunday. A large attendance was out.

Wash Jenkins, together with his brother, Stephen, has returned from St. Louis, where they have been on business.

Old Uncle Willie Webb and his son have gone to Oklahoma, where they will be for awhile.

Gilfred Adder, while walking along the beach near Whitesburg, discovered an oyster with a gold ring in its shell; it was a plain gold wedding one and bore the inscription, "H. R., 1875," and it looked as bright as a new one. Oyster men say that the ring was probably dropped overboard and landed on the oyster, which was just starting to grow and, unable to shake it off, the oyster then grew around it until it was almost covered.

White Rose.

Gray's.

J. T. Gray is very sick this week with typhoid fever, so the doctor says.

Johnny Barton, one of our obliging young merchants, is very sick this week.

Silas Foley has been away to his home in Madison county on the sick list for the past few days, but has returned very much improved.

Will Open up New Vein.

The owners of the property at Ely, where the Hughes-Jellison Coal Co., is operating, have decided to open up the Blue Gem seam, and measures to this effect are now being taken. A new switch will be constructed, and within a few months this coal will be on the market.

The property, on which there are four different veins of coal, is owned by local people, who are getting a good income from the present operations. The Hughes-Jellison company is also a local concern and is getting an output of several thousand tons monthly from the seam it has leased.

Two Bluegrass Farms FOR SALE.

I have in my hands for sale the following farms in Madison county: The two farms of Mrs. J. W. Smith, the first known as the Hugely place and containing about 270 acres.

This place is well fenced, well watered and is in good condition in every way, having thereon a dwelling and all necessary outbuildings, one large barn and several small ones, large young orchard, elstern and everything that goes to make a comfortable home. Fifty acres in cultivation, the rest in blue grass. The second, known as the Carr place, adjoins tract No. 1, and contains about 488 acres; residence, good fencing, elstern, barn, orchard, and is well watered; 100 acres in cultivation, the rest in blue grass. Both of these farms are on turnpikes, and are within half a mile of school-house, and 1-1/2 miles from church and postoffice. This is first-class land, in a good community, and he is money maker to the one who buys it.

For further particulars call on or address L. P. EVANS, Richmond, Ky. sept. 9 nov. 15.

A CARD.

To the Citizens of Knox County:

In coming before the people of Knox county as a candidate for the office of Assessor I can truthfully say that I have among the best men of the county for my opponents. I can tell why I know they are good men, because God has called three of them to preach the Gospel, and has blessed the other with fifteen or twenty of the best producing oil wells in the county. As my opponents have been so wonderfully blessed, I now ask the Republicans of Knox county to bless me with the office of Assessor.

Yours respectfully,

T. C. PARROTT.

FOR SALE.

A farm of 160 acres, more or less, one mile from town; plenty of good cultivating land, good coal bank now being worked, good orchard in bearing, two houses, stables, cribs, etc., plenty of water. Will sell at a bargain. Apply at this office for particulars and price. 9 10-1f

ANNOUNCEMENT.

TO VOTERS OF THE ELEVENTH DISTRICT. I am nominated by the Democratic Convention at Somerset, August 29th, to be voted for November 8th, for Representative of the Eleventh district in Congress. If elected I will owe the honor to the voters of Republicans and Independents as well as Democrats, and I will, in that event, pledge myself to be the official representative of all the people composing this great district.
